

Development Manual

-The following is required for a new programmer to join the team and start contributing

Prerequisites

1. Sign up on Github
 2. Download Node.js installer and run it.
- Verify that node is installed and working. In shell/command line, by typing `node --version`
 - Verify that npm is working, by typing `--npm --version`

Installing

1. Clone the Github repository:
 - In shell/command line, type `git clone https://github.com/badServers/LateTermAssignment.git`
 - Move to project directory, in shell/command line, `cd LateTermAssignment`
1. Install npm
 - In shell/command line, type `npm install`

Running tests

This repository uses Jest testing framework and Supertest.

- To run the tests, in shell/command line type, `npm test`

Running locally

- In shell/command line, type, `npm start` to start the Express server.

Deployment on Heroku

1. Install the Heroku toolbelt / CLI
2. Login to Heroku from shell/command line, by typing `heroku login`
3. Push code to app. In shell/command line, type `git push heroku master`